Our Speakers:

Fr. Keller is an Associate Professor of Sacramental and Liturgical Theology at the Athenaeum of Ohio and resides at St. Gertrude Dominican Priory in Madeira, Ohio. A fervent preacher in the best Dominican tradition, Fr. Keller is a strong voice for living an authentically Catholic life amidst the challenges of today’s culture. He earned his B.A. at the Franciscan University of Steubenville and his S.T.D. from the Pontifical Athenaeum of Saint Anselm. Fr. Keller’s publications include A Lenten Journey with Jesus Christ and St. Thomas Aquinas and 101 Questions and Answers on the Sacraments of Healing.

Andrew J. Sodergren, Psy. D.
Dr. Sodergren is a Catholic clinical psychologist at Ruah Woods. He trained at the Institute for the Psychological Sciences, the only graduate school in existence devoted to integrating psychological science with a Catholic view of the human person and the moral life. A member of the Catholic Psychotherapy Association, Dr. Sodergren has given numerous presentations on the integration of psychology and the Catholic faith. He also serves as an adjunct professor at the John Paul II Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family in Washington, DC.
